

Metamora Hunt Introductory Membership Offer

The Metamora Hunt invites you to become an Introductory Riding Member for the 2022-2023 Season. This membership category is an opportunity for interested riders to experience fox hunting for the first time at a reduced price. If you have not been a Metamora Hunt Member before, here is your chance! Please join us for a season of wonderful riding and social activities.

Introductory Membership Terms and Conditions:

- Introductory Members pay $825, but no other subscription fees for a term of one season.
- Introductory Membership is available to individuals only, and those individuals may never before have been riding members of a hunt recognized by the MFHA.
- Introductory Memberships are available to an individual for a term of one season only and are non renewable, non refundable, and non transferable.
- Introductory Members may enjoy unlimited days of hunting during their term of one season, but do not have voting rights, nor does their term of one season count toward the award of Colors.
- Applicants for Introductory Membership must be approved by the Metamora Hunt Board of Directors.
- At the end of the one season term of Introductory Membership, those individuals may be eligible for other categories of membership, pending approval of the Metamora Hunt Board of Directors.
- Introductory Members will have dining privileges at the Hunters Creek Club and will receive the MFHA Covertside magazine.
